

Ten Forward

Official Publication of the USS Renegade NCC-2547

From the CO Vice Admiral John Hoppa

Crew,

The Akron Comic Con was a huge success! After the dust settled we took in $471 for our Charity fund!

We will be donating our yearly donation to the Second Harvest Food Bank at the end of the month.

The last con on our plate is the Super Toy event in Canfield, Ohio. It will be our last one this year till we hit the Toyhio in February 2023.

I must commend everyone on their commitment to raising money for our charities.

The next thing we need to discuss is the location of our Anniversary dinner. After the Akron Comic Con on Saturday, The USS Lagrange invited us to their continuing celebration of their 40th Anniversary. We went to "The Works" in Cuyahoga Falls.

Getting back to us, we need a location for our dinner. It must have a room that is private. It must also have a diverse menu. Free is always a plus for the room.

I'm thinking that the date will be after our meeting on the 14th. Yes! Our meeting lands on our Launch date. February 14th.

I was not able to attend the meeting in the beginning of November so I will have to look at the minutes to catch up on everything.

Last month new member Nancy Anne Ridder was back in town to shoot a movie with Crewman Travis Bowen. It was a sequel to his movie "The Girl". It was good to see her again and Travis said the principal photography is finished and the editing process has begun.

I hope to see everyone at the Super Toy event this weekend!

VAdm. John Hoppa

Member Activities

Capt. Lisa Eckenrode- Thanks to all those who attended Toyhio, I was glad to hear about such a good turn out! I don't have a list, but you all know who you are.

New business : The National Suicide and Crisis line has changed its number. Instead of the long phone number of the past, you can now dial or text 988 to be connected to a Crisis provider. Services remain the same.

And just because: David Tennant has regenerated into the 14th Doctor for a short run in 2023 for Doctor Who's 60th Anniversary specials. Although he's returning, he's not reprising the role of the 10th Doctor, having said 14 will be completely different. I'm sure our Whovian friends are anxiously awaiting November 2023!

Ensign Sandra Stocks- Hello to the Renegade crew. I have been watching the night sky lately to get good views of Jupiter. It appears as a bright star (planet) in the South East sky. I heard that some people were able to see 4 of the moons with only binoculars but I couldn't find them. The local astronomical club had a night where they set up telescopes and invited the public to come and take a look. I can also see the space station if I get up early, before the sun comes up around 7:15am.

Right now I am visiting my daughter in Calgary, Alberta and they have just had the first snow of the year. Winter is coming!

Have a very Happy Thanksgiving.

COOKING WITH NEELIX

BREAD-PUDDING SOUF-

BREAD-PUDDING SOUFFLE' WAS A DESSERT OF EARTH ORIGIN. IN 2372, IT WAS PART OF THE MENU AT JOSEPH SISCO'S SISCO'C CREOLE KITCHEN, AND HE HIGHLY RECOMMENDED IT TO HIS CUSTOMERS. (DS9: HOMEFRONT)

This specialty of Sisko's is made with three-day-old or stale bread. It works especially well with greenbread made with infused green tea leaves—no pesto or seaweed here, please. Greenbread from green tea is pungent and is nicely enhanced by the judicious use of brown sugar or honey, cinnamon, vanilla, and cream in this recipe. When chilled, it tastes surprisingly like the green-tea ice cream you can find in Asian markets. Hot, it tastes more like the pudding it's supposed to be.

INGREDIENTS:

4 cups or more of three-day-old stale bread, chopped into course cubes
 2 cups raisins, dates, or figs, chopped
 4 cups whole milk or 3 cups milk and 1 cup light cream
 3 eggs
 ¼ cup light brown sugar or honey
 1 teaspoon vanilla extract

INSTRUCTIONS:

Preheat your oven to 325 degrees.

Blend the milk, eggs, brown sugar or honey, and vanilla together with a hand mixer or blender on low until nice and creamy.

Add mixture to the bread cubes and fruit, and either stir through or use your hand mixer on low to combine the ingredients until soggy.

Grease a 9-inch baking pan.

Pour in the mixture, stirring through once or twice to make sure it's thoroughly blended and uniform

Bake for 30 minutes. The top should just turn brown, but don't let it burn.

You can serve this piping hot with cream or a fruit topping, or you can serve it cold. If you serve it at room temperature, you should heat some heavy cream with a splash of honey to use as a topping. Serves four.
