

Ten Forward

Official Publication of the USS Renegade NCC-2547

From the CO Vice Admiral John Hoppa

Crew,

We had a great Time at Toyhio last month. We raised $90 for the show. Not our best, but it was a good addition to the our charity fund.

This month we will be put to the test with two shows, the Akron Comic Con and the Super Toy event .

The Akron show is the 4th & 5th at Emidio & Sons Banquet Center on Bath road in Cuyahoga Falls.

We will set up on Friday the 3rd at 2pm and the show starts at 10am on Saturday so I need everyone to be there at 9am. I believe it's the same time on Sunday but we will know more at the show.

The Cleveland Toy Show has been canceled. But in it's place Travis will put on the Mahoning Valley comic Con at the Boardman Holiday Inn. It will only be a 1 day event. That will be on December 17th 11-7pm. I will have more details at the November meeting.

In other news, I have temporarily taken the position of Region One Director of Operations until the end of RC Phillip Cox's term. I will still be able to do my other jobs in the region with the help of my Assistants.

The Denny's in Austintown had reopening and we will starting meeting there once aging in January. It has been closed since the Fall of 2019. I know several of us were looking forward to it reopening.

See everyone at the next meeting!

First Officer's Log RADM Janice Graham

I remember reading science fiction stories set on other planets that had been settled by humans. The moon was, of course, a standard location. The settlement was enclosed in a pressure dome, or several joined together into a community. It seemed that someone was always threatening to blow up the dome if he/she didn't get what they wanted. I haven't read those for many years but now with the talk of returning to the moon, and the current interest in Mars, I may have to dig them out of the storage boxes. I'm wondering just how close they came to what's real, what actually exists for an off-world settlement. I'm pretty sure the speculation was that by the late 1990s or early 2000s, we'd be "out there." Other than that, what was close and what else was way off.

Member Activities

Capt. Lisa Eckenrode- First, on behalf of the USS Renegade, I would like to extend our condolences to Hilda Rodriguez and Derek Rinard. Our thoughts are with you at this time.

As far as activities go, the Psych department and the Medical Department went to see the Rocky Horror Picture Show with Donald Gore. It was a lot of fun and we had a good night all around. On October 28th, Vicki Gore and I went to a bonfire at Rear Admiral Ron Novak's home. About 15 people attended, most from another organization. There was plenty of food, a lot of good fellowship. A good time was had by all.

Lisa Marie Eckenrode, Captain

Ships Counselor , CMA

PO/3 Travis Bowen- We have changed from the Cleveland Toy Show back to the Mahoning Valley Comicon. We will still be bringing back Deep Roy for this year but our other two guests will need to be rescheduled for a future event. Ming Chen from AMC's Comic Book Men will also be joining us again, he was most recently in Kevin Smith's new movie Clerks 3. We will begin flooding the area with promotional signage and flyers starting around Nov 10th and we will be playing a promotional trailer for the Comicon at Movies 8 in Boardman starting in about two weeks. We made this change as many were upset about the toy event being held on Thanksgiving weekend and it got to the point that it seemed like it was no longer a good idea to establish that show and we've had too much interest in Mahoning Valley Comicon due to last years event that it seemed in our best interest and the interest of our home community to continue the event and presently most people have seemed to be much happier about the Saturday, December 16th date.

LT. Carol Warneke-Not much new with the Warneke Family. Still visiting lots of nursing homes and helping them make seasonal ceramics. Jim helped John move the trailer to its winter home last week.

This month on November 4th and 5th at the Akron Comicon, USS Renegade member Nancy Anne Ridder will be making an appearance. Stop by her table and say hello!
