

Ten Forward

Official Publication of the USS Renegade NCC-2547

From the CO Vice Admiral John Hoppa

Crew,

Welcome to the new year everyone! Last year for the Renegade was another success! We donated $1000 to the Second Harvest Food bank! We met our goal in only 11 months.

The meeting location has changed going forward. We will start meeting back at the Denny's in Austintown on Mahoning Ave. The last time we met there was in 2019.

We had a great recruiting table at the Mahoning Valley Comic Con. We recruited 3 new members since then. I hope to see them at the next meeting in January.

The Anniversary Dinner will be February Saturday 17th at Cocca's Pizza in Canfield on RT 46. The Dinner will start at 6pm in the back party room. We will discuss more at the next two meetings before the dinner.

The first convention we will be doing will be the Toyhio on February 10th. This will take place before the February meeting so we will make plans at the January meeting.

Going forward we will not be going to the Akron Comic Con due to the amount of local conventions that we have here have gone up. We have a total of 8 that were local last year. I know its hard to get everyone at each convention so cutting down the one that the furthest always made the best sense. We can always help out the USS LaGrange who have a table there every year and also for the Fan Expo Con in Cleveland.

See everyone at the next meeting!

VDAM John Hoppa

Member Activities

First Officer's Log RAdm. Janice Graham-

As a teenager, one of my closest friends was a Jewish girl (she still is). Her father was a Rabbi who taught science (ready for this?) at a local Catholic school (Kennedy Christian, now Kennedy Catholic).

One year shortly after the school year began, he came home while we were visiting my friend. He was shaking his head and muttering. "What's wrong, Rabbi?" we asked.

"I gave a basic test to see how much the students knew," he replied, still shaking his head. "The answers I got!" I wish I could remember more of them; he told us a bunch. They were hilarious, answers you'd expect from kids. But there was one that stuck in my mind all this time. "I asked them, 'what is depth?'" Now we could see he was starting to grin and trying to hide it. "One boy said, 'Height going down?' Technically, that's correct," now he did chuckle, "but not quite the answer I was looking for!"

I thought I'd start the new year with a laugh for you. I still laugh at that whenever I think of it.

Janice

Capt. Lisa Eckenrode- Hope everyone had a safe and Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! By the time you read this it'll be 2024.

Where did the time go? Wow! For Lt. Commander Vicki Gore and I, the end of December was a little busy, with the Phantoms hockey game on December 15th, the comic on the 16th, and Trans Siberian Orchestra on the 22. We'd like to welcome Kevin Lyons to our group. He joined at the con. I'm not sure what department he'll be in, but we at Med/Psych enjoy his company!

Lisa Marie Eckenrode, Captain Counselor, CMA

LT. Carol Warneke-We watched a show called Starfleet Academy the other day. Jim says he thinks it was a fan-produced show due to the quality of the filming. Does anyone else watch the many fan-produced takeoffs and what is your take on them?

Doing some research informed us that the new series Star Trek: Starfleet Academy will premier May 24,. Another source says production in 2024 and release in 2025. Who know which one is right? Star Trek Discovery season five will be it's last in April 2024 and has a change in tone from dire crisis to a treasure hunt. One article states that the two animated series are much more exciting that Discovery Season Five.

I haven't gotten into these and wonder how many of the Renegade crew watch them and whether the storyline is worthwhile. Jeremy seems stuck on the old Star Treks: TOS, Voyager, Deep Space Nine, TNG, and Enterprise. I painted some mugs with new series characters and logos and they will be available for the next show.

With all of the Star Trek items in Jeremy's collection, our family still managed to get him new socks, underwear, lunch box, hat, scarf, wristwatch, wallet, and coloring book. Oh, and a rocket themed new button-down shirt (not quite ST but still outer space). The Warneke Family hopes to reconnect with the Renegade Crew during the return to the new refurbished Denny's in 2024. See you then.

MATCH THE WAND MOVEMENTS

1. Accio
2. Fumos
3. Switching Spell
4. Aparecium
5. Alohomora
6. Mimble Wimple
7. Impedimenta

Answers will be in next month's Ten Forward!
