

Ten Forward

Official Publication of the USS Renegade NCC-2547

From the CO Vice Admiral John Hoppa

Crew,

The warmer months are upon us and our second convention for the year is in the books. We raised $72 at the Super Toy Event in Canfield. The next one scheduled is the Toyhio in June.

Don't forget that on May the 4th we will have another ceramics painting session at the Warnke's 1pm-4pm. Please respond to the Facebook event to let Carol know who is coming.

I have also submitted our request to be in the Austintown

4th of July Parade again this year. We will need some more decorations and if we wish to give out candy, we need to start stocking up on some. We ran out a little bit past halfway last year.

I will have to work that day so Jim Warneke has volunteered to pull the shuttle this year.

The Retro Toy Market will be back on June 8th from 10am-4pm. Stop on out to meet Brutus Beefcake, WWE Hall of Famer! More info on page 6.

I'm Sure Kent

and Mike would love to see you there!

PO/3 Travis Bowen is now working with former Renegade member Carlos Rivera for the Mahoning Valley Comic Con that is moved to the Calvin Center in Youngstown on July 6th & 7th.

I will have more info at the next meeting. I hope to see everyone there!

VADM. John Hoppa

Member Activities

Lt. Carol Warneke-MAY THE FOURTH BE WITH YOU! Ceramic event at Carol's Carousel Creations, 4494 Woodridge Drive, Austintown, OH 44525 on Saturday, May 4th from 1:00 to 4:00. We still have some Chewbacca planters to paint, some phone booths from Dr. Who, and other Star Trek mugs and plates. To let me know you are coming call or text 330-219-8001. (If interested but the time doesn't suit your schedule, we can accommodate you another day or time.) This is an opportunity to make some items for sale at the Renegade booth at comic con shows. All proceeds go to the Second Harvest Food Bank and other non-profits in our area.

Carol's Carousel continues doing workshops for four local nursing homes in the Youngstown area: Inn at Glenellen, Inn at Ironside, Inn at Poland Way, and Inn at Walker Mill. The activities director pays for the supplies but we donate the time and lessons as a community service event. Last week we purchased nearly a hundred popular pieces of bisque for the workshops at the Midwest Ceramic Show. These include fairies, gnomes, and a variety of seasonal gingerbread figures.

PO/3 Travis Bowen-I was at the Super Toy Event Show in Canfield this past Saturday and started passing out flyers for the upcoming Mahoning Valley Comicon. Former USS Renegade member Carlos Rivera has joined us as co-promoter.

We will be having Fleet Captain Christopher Pike portrayed by Sean Kenney in the original Star Trek series appearing at this years show on July 6th and 7th. When not portraying Pike, he also portrayed Lt. DePaul in two other original series episodes. His wife Taki will also be coming with him. Sean also wrote the autobiographical book Captain Pike Found Alive. In the 70s he appeared in two episodes of Police Story and starred in multiple b-horror movies, one being the cult classic The Corpse Grinders directed by Ted V Mikals.

Joining Kenney and his wife will be Howard Chaykin who is a comic-book writer and artist. He illustrated the first ten issues of the Marvel Star Wars comics series. His earliest works were science-fiction and fantasy titles in the early 1970s for DC Comics. Although his work on the Star Wars series was a major success, Chaykin is perhaps best known for the series he created in 1983 called American Flagg, a comic with more mature themes than most mainstream titles were depicting at the time.

Capt. Lisa Eckenrode-It's May already! Well, the Med/Psych departments have been busy this April along with members of the Communications and Engineering departments.

Our Annual trip to Cleveland to help out the Lagrange at the Cleveland Fan Expo was quite a success, as we raised $620 for the Cleveland Food Bank over 3 days. Ted, Nancy and Michael were there from the Lagrange and Dan and Jimmy McClure-Neff, Ron Novak, Lisa Eckenrode, Vicki Gore, and Victor Gore all went from the Renegade.

It was a pretty good sized show this year, even including an entire section of nothing but tattoo artists. Sean Astin was the biggest draw, though, with insanely long lines just to get a tick- et...then to get into another extremely long line just to see him...

Brent Spinner was a very nice man, very friendly. We got a chance to speak to him a few minutes all 3 days. We all got to go to his Q&A, which really didn't mention Star Trek at all except for a question or two. He's really quite versatile and it was nice to hear about other things he's done.

We ate a lot of pizza, but you can tell our idea of a room party now is a glass of Romulan Ale to toast the day, for the most part, and slowly heading off to our rooms to start all over the next day.

It was also the end of the Championship rounds for the Youngstown Phantoms. After we got back from Cleveland, Vicki Gore, Victor Gore, and I went to see the first of 2 home games that would advance the team to the next round. Sadly, they lost. Hockey is done for the year

Sunday, April 28, was Super toy at the Canfield Fairgrounds. John and Anette Hoppa, Victor Gore, Vicki Gore, Ron Novak, Lisa Eckenrode, Ron and Pam, and John and Tina. $72 dollars was raised during a day where traffic was a bit odd...Super toy was in the middle of an auto parts show.

I think that's about it! Happy May!

And for those who enjoy, May the 4th be with you!

Lisa Marie Eckenrode, Captain

Counselor, CMA
