REGION ONE

Center Seat

From The Bridge

I hope everyone has had a great summer and looking forward to fall. I know this summer has been a very hot one, hoping for the cooler weather of fall. Peggy and I had a great time at the STARFLEET IC. We met with old friends and made new ones and learned about the inner workings of the fleet. I know there is a lot of concern over the new guidelines requested of our organization. We hope to have clearer guidance from an upcoming meeting in September. For now, we have redesigned our computer banners on our Facebook pages in line with the latest information. We are in the process of reworking our logo for future projects such as banners, flyers and business cards to be in line with the new rules once they have been firmed up. Please try and be patient, Paramount is merely trying to protect their brand and intellectual properties of which we are fans. Rules change and we will adapt and hopefully be better for the experience.

The month of September, I will be leaving the captain's chair in the great hands of our XO Jana. Peggy and I will have limited time and subspace access during this time.

If you have any ideas on events, please let us know. We have an escape room event scheduled on Sunday October 20th in the afternoon. There is a limit of 6 per event and a minimum of 2. If we have more than 6 interested, we can also book the one after. If a different time is needed to accommodate the group, please let me know. Also, at the end of October we will have our Halloween-fest at the captain's quarters. Hope to see you all there. We always have a great time when we get together. More on this later, so watch your emails. Jana you have the con!

Four Legacy Star Trek actors announced for 'Starfleet Academy' series

By TrekNews.net Staff

Paramount+ announces Robert Picardo, Tig Notaro, Mary Wiseman and Oded Fehr for Starfleet Academy series

The cast of the upcoming Paramount+ Star Trek: Starfleet Academy series keeps expanding. During Saturday's Star Trek Universe panel at San Diego Comic-Con, it was announced that Star Trek: Discovery's Tig Notaro, Oded Fehr, and Mary Wiseman along with Star Trek: Voyager's Robert Picardo have joined the first season of the series in various roles and for special guest appearances.

Notaro and Picardo will appear as series regulars reprising their roles as Jett Reno and The Doctor, while Fehr and Wiseman will be guest stars also reprising their roles as Admiral Vance and Sylvia Tilly. Additional previously announced cast members include

The actors join previously announced series castmembers Kerrice Brooks, Bella Shepard, George Hawkins, Karim Diané, Zoë Steiner, Holly Hunter, and recurring guest stars Gina Yashere and Paul Giamatti.

During the panel, Paramount shared the following video, showcasing the new castmembers reactions to being welcomed to the series.

According to CBS, Starfleet Academy will follow the adventures of a new class of Starfleet cadets as they come of age in one of the most legendary places in the galaxy. The series will introduce viewers to this young group of cadets as they come together to pursue a common dream of hope and optimism. Under the watchful and demanding eyes of their instructors, they will discover what it takes to become Starfleet officers as they navigate blossoming friendships, explosive rivalries, first loves, and a new enemy that threatens both the Academy and the Federation itself.

Star Trek 4

The final chapter of Chris Pine's Starship Enterprise crew is in development.

Reportedly still in development is Star Trek 4, the long-delayed fourth Star Trek movie produced by J.J. Abrams starring the USS Enterprise crew led by Chris Pine and Zachary Quinto. Star Trek 4 has a new screenwriter, Steve Yockey, attempting to craft an adventure worthy of bringing Pine's cast back to the big screen after numerous failed attempts. Star Trek*'s cast are all willing to beam back aboard the Starship Enterprise for their "final chapter", but the long wait for Star Trek 4 - which now stands at 8 years and counting

Nearly a decade after Star Trek Beyond was released in 2016, Star Trek 4* is seeing progress toward becoming a reality. Billed as the "final chapter" of J.J. Abrams' Star Trek, the fourth film about the USS Enterprise led by Chris Pine's Captain James T. Kirk has a new screenwriter in Steve Yockey (The Flight Attendant). No director for Star Trek 4 has been named, but fingers are crossed that the Starship Enterprise of the alternate Kelvin Timeline will finally make its big-screen return. Star Trek 4 possibly releasing in 2026 would be an ideal way to mark Star Trek*'s 60th anniversary.

Untitled Star Trek Origin Movie

Premiering in theaters in 2025

Paramount Pictures officially announced an Untitled Star Trek Origin Movie for a targeted 2025 premiere in theaters. Directed by Toby Haynes, who directed Star Wars: Andor and the "USS Callister" episode of Black Mirror, the Star Trek Origin movie is written by Seth Grahame-Smith (Abraham Lincoln: Vampire Hunter). The Star Trek Origin Movie* is produced by J.J. Abrams and is set "decades before" Abrams' Star Trek (2009). When, exactly, in the Star Trek timeline the origin movie is set, and what characters or starship it will be about, is all under wraps, although the film is reportedly set mostly on Earth and will deal with the founding of the Federation.

Middle Eastern Tomato Salad

- 1 cup seeded, finely diced cucumber
- 1 teaspoon salt, or as needed
- 1 cup finely diced tomato
- 1 cup finely diced sweet onion (such as Vidalia)
- 1 cup finely chopped fresh parsley
- $\frac{3}{4}$  cup finely chopped mint, or to taste
- 2 tablespoons olive oil, or more to taste
- 1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice, or more to taste
- salt and ground black pepper to taste

Place diced cucumber into a colander and sprinkle with 1 teaspoon salt; allow to drain for about 15 minutes.

Toss drained cucumber with tomato, sweet onion, parsley, and mint. Drizzle salad with olive oil and fresh lemon juice; season with salt and black pepper. Serve immediately.

SpaceX mission to test new tech in risky spacewalk

STORY: :: SpaceX's 'Polaris Dawn,' one of its riskiest missions yet, will test new tech in the first-ever private spacewalk

:: The new technology includes slim spacesuits and a cabin with no airlock

:: Orlando, Florida

:: Garrett Reisman, Former NASA Astronaut

"They are pushing the envelope in multiple ways, not just with the spacewalk. Not only for, you know, the pushing the envelope and getting the capability for the space suit, but also all the science they're doing. I forgot how many, but they have a, you know, a ridiculous number of experiments that they're conducting, using their bodies as guinea pigs to provide data to the scientific researchers on the ground."

::: A billionaire entrepreneur, a retired military pilot, and two SpaceX employees are set to launch on Aug. 27

A billionaire entrepreneur, a retired military fighter pilot and two SpaceX employees are poised to launch on Tuesday (August 27) aboard a modified Crew Dragon craft, before embarking on a 20-minute spacewalk 434 miles (700 km) into space two days later.

SpaceX's five-day mission - dubbed Polaris Dawn - will swing in an oval-shaped orbit, passing as close to Earth as 190 km (118 miles) and as far as 1,400 km (870 miles), the farthest any humans will have ventured since the end of the United States' Apollo moon program in 1972.

Crew members, including billionaire Jared Isaacman, will don SpaceX's new, slimline spacesuits, and the Crew Dragon vehicle will be modified so it can open its hatch door in the vacuum of space - an unusual process that removes the need for an airlock.

Joining him will be mission pilot Scott Poteet, a retired U.S. Air Force lieutenant colonel, and SpaceX employees Sarah Gillis and Anna Menon, both senior engineers at the company.

SpaceX officials and the Polaris crew said during a Monday (August 19) news conference they have planned for an array of contingency scenarios if something during the mission goes wrong, such as an oxygen leak or failure to reseal the hatch door, but they did not detail what those were.

FLEET MEMBERS

MEETING DATE:

2024-07-21

PROMOTIONS:

Yourchak PROMOTED TO Lieutenant JG on Jul 04, 2024

ACTIVITIES:

July 21st Members of the crew gathered at the captains' quarters to pay respects to one of our fallen. In accordance with the wishes of the Trimble family an Ice Cream social was held in John Trimble's honor. We shared memories and celebrated his life, legacy and the enduring friendships which he had an indirect hand in forming. July 21st following the celebration of life ceremony, the crew held its monthly briefing. July 28th, we gathered to celebrate one of our away members' visit to the area with a dinner at the Ambassadors Table, Golden Corral. Ambassador Irvin has been missed while away representing the chapter in the Gamma quadrant. Crew collected items for Operation Christmas Child, shoe boxes filled with school supplies, small toys and other items that will be mailed off in August through a local charity.

COMMENTS:

Would like to thank all crew members who made the Ice Cream Social / Celebration of life possible. CO continued to work with Fleet Computer Operations department to restore crewmembers back to our chapter. Their efforts on our behalf were greatly appreciated! Updated our social media pages and published our monthly newsletter. Addendum: to Junes MSR: submitted article to CQ.
