

Ten Forward

Official Publication of the USS Renegade NCC-2547

From the CO Vice Admiral John Hoppa

Crew,

The Salem Toy and Comic show went very well. Kevin Sorbo was a great guest and donated an autographed picture. We made $153 despite me being the only one at the show.

The next show will be the Toyhio Toy Show on October 12th. Same set up time as usual. I will set up Friday night and pick up the on Saturday at 4pm.

I had mentioned at the last meeting that it is time to think about a location for our anniversary dinner. We need to pick a location that has a separate back room for us to conduct the awards ceremony.

I am talking orders on new Renegade Shirts. Please let me know at the next meeting. If we get 10 or more orders the price will drop down to between $35-$39 a shirt.

The last con of the year will be the Super Toy Event in Canfield. It will be November 9th. It so happens the same weekend as the Akron Comic Con. We will have to see who will be going to Help out the USS Lagrange at that con.

I'll see everyone at the next meeting.

Member Activities/Reports

Capt. Lisa Eckenrode- I can't believe that the year has gone so fast! I barely remember summer, now it's almost Halloween! Time flies as we get older, they tell me.!

First of all, I would like to commend our Vice Admiral John Hoppla for taking it upon himself to work the table in Salem alone on the 14th of September and it was gratifying to hear he had raised so much money for the charity fund! And thanks to Kevin and Laura Lyons for all their help as well on behalf of the Ranger.

I'm very aware there are other things to do, other clubs, family events...but without attendance at club functions, there are no promotions! It would be great to see a few promotions! And it would be nice for the ones of us who work all the time to have some help.

Okay, enough said. I'll get off my soap box.

So...what have RAdm Ron Novak, Commodore Jimmy McClure Neff, Lieutenant Dan McClure Neff, Lt. Commander Vicki Gore and I been up to?

We all met at Vicki's house and drove 4 hours to Rochester, NY for the Flower City Comicon. It was held in a sports complex (if you've never been on astroturf, I'm telling you it's easier on the joints to a point but if you're in a wheelchair, a walker, or scooter, it's a bit difficult to maneuver)

The venue was pretty large, but all of the panels were held in tents outside. Not a bad thing...but when you're in the main sales area, you wonder about how much they thought about staging the floor....It wasn't as big as I thought it would be. And I didn't see too many gamers there gathering yet. But it was still early. We happened to get there not long after opening. The lines were pretty long still.

But the sales floor wasn't the main reason we were there. Or the gaming.

It was John Barrowman. Of things like Arrow, Torchwood, and Doctor Who fame, among other projects. After all the Star Trek celebs we've met, it was our first Who celeb. Vicki and I bought tickets for the photo op and waited.

Just as Vicki went into the photo booth, the fire alarm went off. They evacuated the building to search for a missing girl and we spent about a half hour in the parking lot. When they let us back in we got news. Our photo session had been canceled. We would be getting the higher priced session later in the day. No extra charges.

So we followed him to his Q and A, then went back for pictures, after that were autographs.

He's one who pulls no punches. John says what's on his mind and doesn't apologize. In fact, when he went to start his Q and A, he told the audience if they were offended, there's the door. And he's fun. We had a couple minutes to talk with him at the autograph table and the selfies I took with him were so silly. And Vicki and I were able to get him to laugh. Well, we often get people to laugh.....

As for the trip itself, I doubt I'll ever go to an Applebee's again, the hotel rooms turned out ok, the breakfast was better than expected and the trip back and forth was uneventful.

That's just about it, really.

LT. J/G John Austrino- Hello everyone, hopefully everyone had a safe and healthy September. Tina and I had a pretty mellow month, not a lot to talk about, but we finished out the month Saturday night the 28th enjoying ourselves at JR's listening to Relapse celebrate 20 years. There were some other fellow crewmates in attendance as well, a good time was had by all.

I have a suggestion for a possible get together for the crew. To meet up at Drake's Landing 6pm October 22nd for a Halloween trivia night. Prices are $5 for non alcoholic beverages and trivia game, $15 for 4 alcoholic beverages at the bar and trivia. Also available is a limited menu to order food a la carte.

I will try to have a few flyers at our meeting and see if people are interested. If we get some people that would like to go, when I have a count I can have a table reserved for us.

Ens. Sandra Stocks-Hello from Ens Sandra Stocks, I have just returned from a wonderful trip to Chicago, visiting family. Great city with lots to see and do. I hope to go there again sometime.

Canadian Thanksgiving is on Oct. 14 this year and I will be eating turkey with my family in Calgary Alberta.

I am excited to say that I will be in Hawaii at the end of the month. Taking a short cruise on Norwegian's Pride of America ship. Hope the weather will be nice. I have been watching 'The Ark' on TV and enjoying the show very much. Not as good as Star Trek but quite interesting so far. Is anyone else in the crew watching it?
