Captain's Corner

By Ted Klosowski

September

The Tycho had another event filled month with several activities. We had dinner at Hot Sizzling Wok followed by a play, The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee by the Village Players. We had a nice group attend that which featured Linda's family friend Neil. The play was a lot of fun and everyone had a good time. After that several of us went and hung out with our Klingon pals at The Copper Kettle and then we took a trip to Davis-Besse for their car show and community event. See some pictures later on in this newsletter.

We have few members who are having some health issues. Please keep in your prayers Sherriea Williams and Tom and Ann Marie Jablonowski. Also remember Lisa who recently lost her father.

Hope to see you at our next meeting, Thursday, October 3 at Church of St Andrew 6:15 and Zoom @6:30.

We often would come home from work and find our bird bath knocked over. I suspected the squirrel that would try to climb our bird feeder. I happened to catch the neighbors cat taking a drink from the bird bath. Sorry squirrel, it wasn't you.

Rhythms of Eternity

By Belinda Williams

This must be the percussive syncopation of infinity
 A Cosmic dance disturbing my complacency
 Or is this merely the rhythms of Eternity
 I feel the relentlessly pounding power
 Tis an accompaniment of a Celestial symphonia aflower
 And I, but a sentient speck
 An inconsequential fleck
 May I dare to fantasize
 As if I slept among the unwise
 I this my uncertain place
 Propelled by time and space
 As I was born to dwelt
 This is how I have always felt
 Just to breathe between the syncopated beats of serenity
 That neverending destiny was always there to share
 My eventual legacy to feed my reverie
 Tis my benevolent gift of resonance
 A constance unto myself
 Only what I could say I felt
 A panoramic view
 A pandemonium to ensue
 There it is above my head and beneath my feet
 A mystic Heaven doth faithfully bequeath

A Homeless Planet

By Belinda & Sherriea Williams

An indigo backdrop floated on the viewscreen. It was densely bespeckled with an extravagant array of white lights. Waves of heaving iridescence seemed alive as they flickered across the celestial distance. Delicate patterns decorated the deceptively depthful cosmic ceiling.

Commander Marchelle smiled as if she were inspired by an Andorian holographic painting. The image was almost a spiritual experience.

Captain Ted startled her as he silently appeared from out of nowhere.

"Mesmerizing, isn't it?"

She acted as if he had caught her off guard.

She replied, "Absolutely Captain. Part of the reason I wanted to jockey a starship!"

Ted smiled, "Me too!"

He handed her a pad as he clicked open its screen. He handed her the device. Then he spoke in a jovial manner, "You should enjoy our next mission!" She glanced at the pad briefly, exclaiming, "Excuse my juvenile reply, sir. But "Wow!"

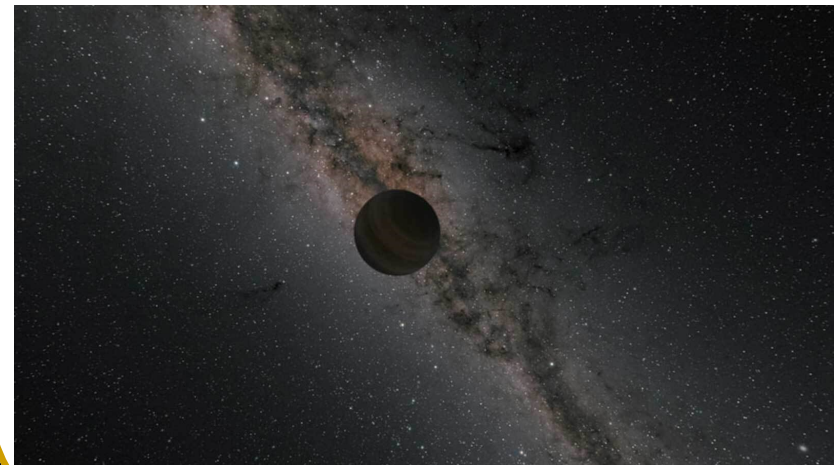

Ted, pointed with a hooked thumb over his shoulder, and towards the lift behind him.

She laughed as she swung the chair around to him. She spoke, "The bridge is yours, Captain."

He replied, "Thank you!"

The next several days of scanning this sector proved a bit monotonous even if the scenery was glorious. Every department head was enthusiastic with details on the selected patches of stellar imagery they were scanning. This sector was near the border of Alpha Centauri, a favored destination for galactic scientists and astronomers. Three other federation starships were also conducting similar investigations at the Sol-Alpha Centauri border conjunction. They were to dock at the nearby Starbase to share their data.

Stuffed Peppers Classic and Variations

Submitted by Linda Fotoplee

Comments in parentheses are Linda's notes on making the dish.

Ingredients:

- 4 very large green bell peppers or about 5 small ones (3 big ones halved work fine)
- 15 ounce can tomato sauce (diced tomatoes work)
- ½ pound ground beef or turkey (sausage is good)
- 1/3 cup chopped onion
- 1 cup cooked brown or white rice
- 1/8 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon black pepper
- 1/8 teaspoon garlic powder

Instructions:

1. Cut the tops off the peppers and remove the seeds (I halved them.) Place the peppers in a large saucepan and cover with water. Bring to a simmer and cook 3 minutes, just until the peppers are slightly soft. (Need more time - I roasted some.) Drain, rinse with cool water and set aside on paper towels to drain.
2. In a skillet, heat the ground beef and onion and cook until no pink remains. Drain.
3. Add the salt, pepper, rice, garlic powder and half of the tomato sauce.
4. Stir well and spoon into the peppers
5. Top with the other half of the tomato sauce.
6. Bake in an ungreased dish at 350 for 25-30 minutes. Serve warm.

Book Review

By Ted Klosowski

Time Guild 1: A Folding Space Universe Novel

by AM Scott

While this book is called Time Guild 1 it is actually a continuance of the Lightwave series which you should probably read first. This book picks up with the crew of the Lightwave, Saree, Captain Ruhger, Quinn and the rest. Saree is trying to train other humans to be clock maintainers to carry on the work she started so the galaxy isn't dependent on her and aliens to maintain the fold clocks and smooth space.

Gov Human is trying to get Saree's eggs so they can "grow" their own clock maintainer. Can Saree and Ruhger stop them? Every fold seems to drop them from one hot zone to the next.

I enjoy these stories; however, this one seems to have relied a little on AI for help. Some of the sequences where the crew worked together each using their own abilities...reminded me too much of our own Tycho stories that were written using AI. I hope not but the cadence and storytelling was way too familiar. Hopefully, the author was just toying with AI and will put it to rest for the next adventure

U.S.S. Tycho Minutes

USS Tycho

September 5, 2024

Commanding Officer: Ted Klosowski

Recording Officer: Marchelle Lee

Location: Charlie's on Central and None on Zoom

Attending: Marchelle, Ted, Jerry, Diana, Linda, Donna-marie, Mark, Sally, Dianne, Guy, Wynnie, Chrissy, and Brian

There was a Zoom call that we missed Sunday about the guidelines for using Star Fleet icons in logos and other materials. Right now they're saying we can use the Delta shield but can't have the little star in it and we can't use Roddenberry Star Trek fonts. We may have to change our chapter logo. We hope to hear more soon.

No one has stepped up to run for Captain, so we will have a vote of confidence for Ted at the November meeting.

It's time to start planning for the Christmas Party. Will be discussed more next meeting.

Davis Besse Community Day is coming up. Jerry will be volunteering in the lobby.

Some will be going to the Spelling Bee musical at The Village Players. You are encouraged to wear your Tycho gear. There will be a form to fill out if you want to participate onstage. We will be eating dinner at Hot Sizzling Wok.

The Millbury Classic Car Museum trip has been postponed. Watch your email or phone.

We will be walking this year in the Clifton Gorge State Nature

Preserve and eat breakfast at the Clifton Mill Restaurant. This will probably take place on a Saturday in October.

The Klingons will be at The Copper Kettle on a Sunday collecting money for the Toledo Humane Society. Federation members are welcome.

Donna is enjoying playing with her grandchildren.

Linda is canning tomatoes and doing needlework.

Dianne: Solvent

Wynnie: Show and tell with her costumed doll.

Brian has nothing to report.

Chrissy is getting ready for deployment.

Diana and Jerry had medical adventures.

Guy said his son's film didn't win any awards this time.

Ted is going to have surgery on his foot. He will keep us posted.

Newsletter deadline is Saturday, September 14.

Next meeting is Thursday, October 3 at Church of St. Andrew.

END TRANSMISSION

Next meeting is October 3
Church of St. Andrew @ 6:15 and
Zoom @6:30
Be there or be a tribble.
